Daily using my #unconventional, #creative and #sharpwitted bio-processor to help create a more secure future.

Well, that's my tagline indeed. I could talk endlessly about my interests, passion, experience and knowledge. But what I much rather do is to get to know you and your organization! Do you have a Cybersecurity question, problem or challenge? And are you looking for an seasoned Cybersecurity expert with an unprecedented hunger for more knowledge, personal growth and delivering real value to help you further?

If the answer to that question is yes, please contact me right away.
